

AMATIS PIANO TRIO

Selected Press quotes 2018/2019

“Their virtuosity and musicality is of absolute world class...” -Schweizer Tagblatt (Swiss newspaper)

“The Amatis Piano Trio is an outstanding ensemble on their way to establishing a great international career” - Prof. Daniel Hope (Beaux Arts Trio)

“...This ensemble belongs to the most promising chamber music formations of our time. Every single musician in the group received great soloist tuition- proven by their individual successes in solo competitions and concerts. [...] Their biggest strengths lie in their enormous stylistic security, in their sound variety, in an absolutely breathtaking piano/ pianissimo quality, a flawless intonation and their perfect ensemble playing and communication. Their stage presence is incredibly impressive.” -Lukas Hagen (Hagen quartet)

“The highlight, however, was the performance of Beethoven’s famous Triple Concerto where the soloists were the excellent Amatis Trio and conductor Jamie Philips shaping a most sympathetic response from the orchestra (Royal Philharmonic Orchestra London) this was a most memorable interpretation...” -Philip Dukes, Marlborough College News

“...the Amatis Piano Trio is as fresh as they come. The ensemble, barely four years old, and made up of three players [...] (violinist Lea Hausmann, cellist Samuel Shepherd and pianist Mengjie Han), is already winning all big prizes across Europe..” -Irish Times

“Breathtaking Ensemble playing” -Südtiroler Zeitung

“The audience celebrates the “Fantastic Three” with never ending applause [...] Chamber Music on the highest level” -Neue Westfälische

“...gave way to reflective lyricism, beautifully balanced between the instruments. [...] The musicians relished the emotional contrasts found in the Schubert, constantly communicating with each other by look and gesture.” -classicalsource.com